2021 COVID-19 EMERGENCY RENTERS ASSISTANCE PROGRAM (ERAP)

The Los Angeles City COVID-19 Emergency Renters Assistance Program (ERAP) will provide financial assistance to eligible residential renters who have been unable to pay their rent due to circumstances related to COVID-19. Eligible applicants must meet the following criteria:

1. Reside in the City of Los Angeles; and
2. Qualified for unemployment benefits or experienced a reduction in household income, incurred significant costs, or experienced a financial hardship due to COVID-19; and
3. Has a household income at or below 50 percent of the area median.

Applicants will not be asked about their citizenship, nor will they be required to show proof of citizenship.

Priority will be given to eligible households that include an individual who has been unemployed for the 90 days prior to application for assistance and households with income at or below 30 percent of the area median.

Eligible applicants will be processed through a random selection to participate in the program. Eligible households may receive up to 12 months of financial assistance towards back rent owed from April 1, 2020, to March 31, 2021. If the landlord does not wish to participate in the program, eligible households may receive 25% towards unpaid and/or future rent. These rules are in alignment with regulations established by Senate Bill 91.

Information collected will be used to determine program eligibility. Applications for financial assistance will exceed available funding. Applicants approved to receive financial assistance will be randomly selected. All personal information will remain confidential, however, anonymized data may be aggregated and used for statistical, and research purposes.

3. Once you click Register, you should see a “Thank you for signing up!” message below to check your immediately to retrieve your PIN and a link to set your password. Please note that if you do not see your email, check your Spam or Junk Mail folder. The link is only good for 12 hours, so you should check your email immediately.

9. Tenant Current Rental Address

- In the “Type and Select Your Address” box, this is a Google service that will assist with your address formatting. Once you start typing your address, a list of recommendations of an address is listed. Select your address (if it’s in the Los Angeles boundaries), it should automatically populate the Street, City, State, and Zip. If your address is not on the list, please click on I need to fix my address to manually enter your address.
- It is required to enter a Unit/Apt Number if you have one. If you do not have one, please click on the check box “I do not have a unit/apartment number...”
- You are required to confirm your address is correct by clicking on “This is my correct address” to go to the next questions. Once confirmed, you should see a message “Tenant has indicated that the above address is correct”.

Tenant Current Rental Unit Address

Current rental address needs to be within the geographic boundaries of the City of Los Angeles and will automatically fill as you type. Please enter your Unit/Apartment number (if any) and verify for accuracy, then click “This is my correct address” button. You may override and continue with entering your rental address by clicking “I need to fix my address” button. All addresses submitted will be validated to ensure it meets City of Los Angeles boundary requirements.
